Huai Group, also known as Shanghai Huai E-commerce (Group) Co., Ltd., was founded in 2014 by integrating high-quality resources from multiple well-known enterprises in Shanghai. Huai Group is currently a medium-sized enterprise that integrates research and development, production, and sales. Its main focus is on researching and operating projects and businesses that benefit people's livelihoods, mainly in the health and elderly care industries. Huai Group relies on its research, production, and sales base in Pudong New Area, Shanghai. From initially focusing on the beauty and health industry, it has gradually developed into a multi field, national group company. Now it has large industrial bases such as Baijiu production and sales base in Sichuan and red wine manor in Weihai, Shandong. At the same time, Huai Group has also established strategic partnerships with multiple large retail channel merchants in Australia, obtaining full agency qualifications for thousands of high-quality Australian products in China. Along with its rapid development, Huai Group actively carries out sales cooperation with contracted products based on abundant market resources, helping multiple small and medium-sized enterprises open up markets and achieve a win-win situation. Huai Group adheres to the corporate spirit of "no trust, no standing, and perfection", striving to become the most valuable national enterprise in the world!
